PEING about to engage in other pursuits, I offer for sale my DISTILLERY and FINTURES.—
This property is about one mile below Frankfort, and just below the Lock, and within the range of the proposed extension of the water privilegee. It has an excellent wharf, perfectly convenient for the landing of coal, wood, grain, &c., and equally so for the shipment of everything either up or down the river. The improvements consist of a large three-story stone warchouse, a still-house, wood-house, and excellent pens. The machinery is of the hest and most improved patterns for making Copper-distilled Whisky—the engine is a splendid one and entirely new, having cost, a few months since, about one thousand dollars. The establishment is supplied by a splendid spring of pure water which never fails and never gets muddy. The property could, at a very trifling cost, be converted into one of the best and most eligible flouring mills in Kentucky. Any one wishing to purchase will apply to me at my residence adjacent to the premises.

We hope that the Journal's call, and the resolutions of the State Committee accompanying it, will be attentively considered by that class of Know-Nothings who have been honest in their advocacy of so-called American principles, and are as yet unwilling to be sold out, body and mind, to Northern Abolitionism. We think they will find the call and resolutions a little too strongly tinctured Fittl with fusion for their palates.

To doubt further the deliberate design of the K. When the Journal calls for a Convention of Americans, old Whigs, and all others desirons of uniting in the overthrow of the present administration, it means to embrace the Cassius Clay emancipationists and the Fremont voters of the State-in effect to get up a new organization on Southern soil which can thoroughly affiliate with the conglomerated isms of the North, and go into the contest of 1860 with one ticket and one set of principles with its Northern allies.

The Illinois Canvass

The obligations the South once gratefully acknowledged to Mr. Douglas and his coadjutors for valuable services rendered, have been annulled by the late disastrous elections in the morth-The man who acted so prominent and efficient a part in the removal of that degrading restriction which Congress had placed apon the legitimate expansion of son hern institutions, who aided in procuring the Federal Legislation guaranteed by the Constitution for the renlition of escaped slaves, who has battled against the aggressive measures of traitors, fa-natics and fools, and for years stood in the Senate the faithful champion of southern rights, could never have lost the gratitude, the sympathy and friendship of a generous people, except by recreancy to reposed confilence and treachery to the interests intrusted to his keeping. mere difference of opinion upon a party measure, a refusal to support a movement to which he could not yield a conscientious approval, or a lukewarmness in a struggle wherein the Sc felt the deepest interest, accompanied with his past hostility to our foes, and his accustomed condemnation of their principles, would have been pardoned to him who had rendered service so important. But when he assumed an attitude of hostility to an Administra tion or party measure, and threw himself in the enemies' camp, consulting, advising, and co-operating with our foes for the defeat of the De nocratic pirty and the South, his offense of recreancy to principle was lost in the magnitude of his crime of treachery to his friends. A refusal to support the Lecompton measure was not his crime-that was his error; infidelity to the trusts of friendship, treason to party interests, a betrayal of confidence, a rendering of aid and comfort to the enemy, are his unpardonable sins. pardonable, because however much he may have lisapproved the President's Kansas policy, be unust still have found the De meratic party, even while sopporting the Administration, more patri-utic, sounder, and better deserving of support than those with whom he cast his influence-it we are to believe him sincere in his political course of the past ten years.
But the war thus made by Judge Douglas upon

The defeat of the Democratic party in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Indiana, their irreputable I sees in the Congressional elections of those States and the peril ms condition of the party in Ill rois and New York, are mainly attributable to the defection of the Iliuois Sanator. He has brought widespread rain to the party he contributed in so entanent a degree to laid upon the North, and given the victory to these whom he has, through a whole lifetime, denonced.— Like the strong man of sacred history, he has grappled the pillars of northern Democracy at 1 eluced the beautiful structure to rain; but like him, he is destined to per sh beneath the wreck.

While thus reproduting the course of Judg. Donglas during the list session of Congress, and attributing our late losses to the defection of him self and friend, we think his election at this time in Illinois over the recognized exponent of Aboism, and the candidate of the regular Republic in organization, a result most desoutly to be wished by every southern man. If we correct ly appreciate his present attitude, he is not buting against the Administration; the Lee aupton is-ue does not enter the struggle, and his success or defeat cannot be construed into a triumph or condemnation of the President's Territorial pol He is lighting Abolitionism in its strongest presentation, and is opposed to a polarical organ-ization which seeks the control of the Peleral Government for the avowed purpose of oppressing the South; he acknowledges allegiance to the Democratic party, and we doubt not will be a loyal member of the party in future. His defeat will be no vindication of Lecomptonism, but rather a triumidi of a worse form of anti-Lec on stonism. His success will break the tide of Aboritionism now sweeping over the North, serious v cripple the Republican organization, and insure the State of Illinois to the Democratic nominee of the Charleston Convention. He is the only man, and his party now the only peditical organization in Illinois, possessing the strength to combat Repub-We do not apprehend that his heresicwill intect the Democratic party in the event of his triumph; nor do we anticipate any pernicious result from the force of his example. His career has demonstrated that the most potent and trusted leader cannot seduce the masses from principle, nor blind them to his errors. If elected, he returns to the Sende a subordinate in the ranks, shorn of his strength, because, without the confidence of the South, a penitont, rather than an exultant, victor. While, therefore, we see no ing enemy cannot deny that the defeat of the Republican party in its pending struggle in Illinois no matter what the instrument of that defeat, is a result of the utmost importance in its bearing upon the canvass of 1.6). And the e are the views we have consistently held touching the Islandicauvass .- Lexington Statesman.

The Appellate Reporter.

The Journal of vesterday coinst and inforsed an article from the Frankfort Commonwealth, complaining bitterly and denunciatorily of the removal of Judge Monroe from the reporter's chair of the Court of Appeals. The principal reason assigned why Judge Mouroe should u t have been removed, is, that he has occupied that post for eighteen years. Now it seems to us Congress of seventeen over the Republicans, and that this was reason enough of itself for ousting him. He has futtened upon this office for eighteen long years, and yet he is not satisfied. has done his best to keep Democrats out of office during these eighteen years, and surely he could not expect to remain in affice when the Democracy got into power in spite of him. He is just States. the kind of man we like to see oustel from of-fice. It would have been a nice piece of work to have kept him in office, when so many good and competent Democrats wanted and deserved

We want to see the whole Frankfort clique are the same late. They have fattened upon the public toug curugh. We say off with every one of their heads. The Democratic guillotine

As to Mr. Metcalfe, who has been appointed in his stead, not being competent, the charge is too outrageous for notice. Mr. Metcalte is a better lawyer, and will make a better reputer, on the hiside of the skirt, with holes having the than Julge Monroe lle is superior to Judge Monroe in every particular, except that of having occupied one office for eighteen long years. He is not such a hunker as that, nor do the Democracy intend that he shall be. They will give the ffice to haif a dozen men in that length of time. They will be guided by the very sensible rule that if the judges who give opinions are liable to to a ruse, in order to mislead the public and make change at the will of the people, surely the reporter of their opinions need not be a fixture .-It would have been a shame upon judges, whom his parents for about two mouths, having the Democracy elected, if they had retained a know Nothing reporter. The judges did right in ousting Mouroe and putting in Metcalfe, and his bondsmen. There is no doubt but the latter the people will say so .- Lou. Courier.

Our old friend, James P. Metcalfe, formerly of this county, has been appointed Reporter of the Decisions of the Court of Appeals, vice Hon. Ben. Monroe, whose term of office had expired. appointment will be peculiarly gratifying to the Democrats of Mason county, who know Mr. Met ealfe so well and appreciate him so highly; and will give great satisfaction to his numerous friends in all parts of the State, who are familiar with his qualifications and his merits, and honor him for the fidelity with which he has discharged every duty intrusted to him. Mr. Metcalfe was a mem ber of the Legislature in 1850 and '51, and was bortly afterwards appointed Secretary of State oy Governor Powell, which office he held until 1854, when he resigned it and moved to this county. He is an incorruptible Democrat, an honest man, a vigorous and effective writer, and a firstrate lawyer. It is emphatically a good appointment .- Maysville Express.

A telegraphic dispatch from Springfield was sublished on Saturday morning, giving a synopsis of the letter received by the Democratic Central Comm tice, from Vice President Breckinridge, defining his position, and advising the re-election of Senator Donglas to the Senate. The letter has been received, and we proceed to lay it before our readers. It is as follows:

Great Excitement in Penn Yan-A Real or Feigned Murder.

PENN YAN, N. Y., Sept. 24, 1858. Our village was thrown into a state of no little excitement, this morning, by a report that Napoleon B Van Tuyl, the kidnapper, had been mir-dered. The report originated from Van Tuyl's sudden disappearance, and the finding of his hat can't do better work than to cut off the official (with his name on it) on the bank of the canal, heads of all such men as Judge Monroe. leaving received a blow from a club or some other appearance of stabs from a knife, on each side of the breast, and one though the collar, a little above the shoulder. The water was drawn off from the upper level of the capal, and the capal searched but no traces of the body were discovered. The impression generally prevails that he has not been murdered, but that he has resorted

> Van Tuyl has been in this villege, residing with supposition is correct, as there are circumstances in the matter that tend to confirm it. A person answering his description was seen stand the canal bridge at a late hour last night, with a glazed cap on his hend, and something con under a light overcoat, which is supposed to be the hat found as above. He had purchased glazed cap a few days before, unknown to his parents, and probably with this thing in view. A search among his wearing apparel shows the disappearance of his cap and a lew articles of winter clothing. The supposition now is, that he has been helped off by some of his triends who are interested; that he is on his way to some other country, and this course has been taken in order to release his bail on the plea that he has been reurdered, if he makes good his escape. It his body should be found, and it turns out that he has been murdered, I will let you know of it.

Hr. As I think that a public acknowledgment of the great benefit I have received from the use of your motiene is not only due toyon, but may be useful to athers, I may make it. For several years I suffered from Dispepsy, which increased to such an extent that my health and constitution were rapidly sinking under it. I was compelled to restrict misself to the most simple food, and even that I could not digest; I felt a loss of strength, disinclimation to exercise, and (as you have it an your advertisement) a general feeling of depression and indescribable weariness. In the year 1st Ashering from others hear recommendation of your Anti-Ity speptic Elixir, I procured and used it with the most happy effect; and r its indisence, languor and weariness gailually passed away, and my appetite returned, which I could gratify with inquinity. Ten years have now clupsed, and my confidence in the curative powers of your medicine has of course incremsed, for it completely enred me when I failed to obtain relief from any other source.
